

Play Ball!

Choral singing is more than concerts in black tie and gowns.

The community events and participation with sister organizations like the Longmont Symphony Orchestra, and other neighboring choral groups, keeps our group involved, seeking new opportunities to entertain and educate.

Once in a while, we shed the penguin suits and have some fun.

This sense of belonging keeps our members coming back.